MAGGIE ANWER

DIRECTOR, PRODUCER,
DISTRUBUTION &
WRITER

Maggie is the CEO OF MAGICA Productions and Magica House, which manages several international productions and distributions every year. With 200+ distributed films winning awards internationally.

She is also the President of the Faten Hamama Film Festival, Children's Film Festival, and La Femme Film Festival. Along with being the owner of WICA (World Independent Cinema Awards, outside Europe ) in New York, Hollywood, Las Vegas, Canada, and Sydney.

ABOUT

She is a consultant, strategic planner, and advisor for more than eight European film festivals London, Milan, Nice, Madrid, Antwerp, and Barcelona IFF.

Maggie started her career at the age of 16 when she participated in writing articles about English movies.

Having sat watching a film at Cannes, she vowed that the next visit to the festival would include watching her own film on the big screen. She achieved this at the age of 19 years old.

Maggie is the first female to own an International Film Festival and to create further history by founding the first Egyptian international film festival supported by members of the British royal family, this includes Princess Katrina, the great-niece of Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh. Princess Katrina is also the ambassador for the festival.

As a filmmaker, Maggie has never been afraid to venture into difficult conditions, having filmed within Syria during its continued war.

" I AM PASSIONATE ABOUT SUPPORTING OTHER FILMMAKERS TO MAKE THEIR DREAMS COME TRUE. BUT MY OWN DREAM IS TO MAKE A LASTING IMPACT ON THE FILM AND ART IN INDUSTRY "
